 ALL AMERICAN SPEEDWAY PRESS RELEASE *****

For Immediate Release 090909

After 18 weeks of Championship Points Racing, it all comes down to this!

This Saturday night, September 12th, The All American Speedway in Roseville will crown our 2009 Champions in each of our four premiere divisions.

In the Late Model Division, Cameron Park's Jason Romero (#8), in just his sophomore campaign, is all but a lock to win. Romero is ranked 11th in the Country, 2nd in the State of California, and leads Orangevale's Gary Glenn (#50) by 70 points at AAS. This week, The Late Models will compete in Twin 44 Magnum races. These are two separate 44 Lap races with twice the points up for grabs. We anticipate a very good car count for the final "points" races of the season.

Roseville's Jarred Beddow (#50) locked up the Championship last Saturday night in the Modified Division. Technically, he doesn't even have to show up. However, in speaking with him last week, he says "We want to win the Championship in Grand Style! We'll be here to win!"

In one of the most highly contested divisions, Elverta's Mickey Owens (#08) leads Loomis' Christopher Lambert (#50) by 15 points in the Street Stocks. Owens proved with a win last week that he is poised to repeat as Champ. But don't count Lambert out just yet! Anything could happen! That's why we race!

And in the Bomber Division, Wow... what a battle! Citrus Heights' Adam Chapman (#01) leads by just 3 points over Roseville's Erick Ray (#77). The Bombers had the week off last Saturday night. Ray decided he would run his car with the Street Stocks to stay sharp. Here's another race you won't want to miss!

Drivers in all Divisions will be scratching and clawing for every point and position! You can't afford not to be here for the final "points" week of the '09 season at AAS! Here's your warning! BE HERE! Champions will be crowned!

Gates will open at 4pm with qualifying shortly thereafter. Racing begins at 6pm.
