

2009 Roseville NASCAR Race Schedule Completed

(Roseville, CA 2-5-09) The All American Speedway 2009 race schedule was announced today at the Placer County Fairgrounds in Roseville, CA. The aggressive new schedule has something for everybody with the NASCAR Whelen All American Home Track series along with a flurry of other activities including USAC sprint cars, the return of Legend car racing, youngsters in the mini cup and baby grand divisions, and lots more. A total of 33 events have been posted for 2009, kicking off on March 19-21 with the first annual All American Showdown open event for Late Models, Modifieds, Street Stocks, Bombers, and Interceptors.

The NASCAR Whelen series will get underway on the following weekend March 28, followed by the return of the NASCAR Camping World West race on April 4. The regional Camping World series makes two stops at All American Speedway with a Fall date of September 26. Both events will have live Speed TV coverage.

The Late Models, Modifieds, Street Stock, and Bomber will also be the headliner for the NASCAR Whelen series on a weekly basis. Payouts have adjusted particularly in the Street Stocks and Bombers. Details are on the track website. The United States Auto Club (USAC) will make one of five stops at All American Speedway on April 18, joined by the Ford Focus midgets and Legend Cars of the Pacific. USAC will also be part of the Placer County Fair on June 27th.

Enduro racing will return this year, the 200 lap endurance racing, that runs on a soapy racetrack, will held May 2, June 28, August 29, and October 3.

Interceptors will return for 2009 with a broader rule that will allow a wider variety of cars. The low cost entry division will allow most stock full frame cars to compete with basic safety improvements. They also have 10 events in 2009. The Northern California Modified Association (NCMA) sprint cars will return after a successful debut last year and the track has introduced a new spec.sprint rule that will can run with the NCMA cars on any of their six events in 2009.

WSRA Mini Cups and Baby Grands will have visits on four occasions. Information on the new schedule may be obtained at the track website, www.allamericanspeedway.com or at 916-786-2025.

END