Three Classes Up For Grabs with Bomber Division Clinched at AAS

Source RMG Race Media Group

This Saturday, September 3 the NASCAR Whelen All American Series Championship point's series will be returning after a weekend break to battle for the remaining three to four races left of the season. Saturday will be featuring NASCAR Late Models 100, Modifieds 40, Street Stocks and Bombers 35 laps. As the weather continues to stay hot with Saturday expecting temperatures in the triple digits the points chase will also continue to get heated providing lots of racing action as the season nears its finale.

In the Street Stock division, Mickey Owens continues to hold his points lead over the field, but finished second to Poppert in the last race when both drivers drag raced to the finish line. Richard Poppert Jr., sits in the second position with only 17 points from first. In third, Byron Gonzales is still working his magic on narrowing the gap for second. Will Poppert be able to grab the championship with only four races left .

The last race the Late Model division saw a new winner to jump in and break up the winning streak of Romero and Scott however Scribner did not budge the top two points leaders. Matt Scott continues to lead the field with a 25 point advantage over Jason Romero sitting in second. Romero with the most wins thus far is trying to close the gap for first. Third, Fourth and Fifth are all very tight for the third position as Juan Pitta in third has Chris Scribner knocking on the door with only 15 points from third. Dylan Hutchison moved back to fifth with just three points from fourth.

Dan Jinkerson has earned his first place points lead as he captured his third Modified win this season. Currently in second, Steve Cote is working hard to get Jinkerson shaking in his boots for the 2011 championship. With two races and one twin 50s left for the 2011 season the battle for the top spot will only continue to get heated.

Eight time Bomber feature winner, Chris Paulson has finalized his 2011 Championship since the two drivers in second and third in points, Erick Ray and Matt Camp, have been placed on probation, losing all competition points, which gives Richard Perez the second spot. The gap between Perez and Paulson is so far that Paulson has set in stone the 2011 championship. The next battle in line is Richard Perez second and Joe Rhodes in third is just 10 points from second.

Pit Gates and Registration opens at noon with practice starting at 2 pm. The Grandstands open at 4pm with qualifying set for 4pm and green flag racing at 6pm. Ticket prices for the evening will be as follows:

Adults (16-59) $13

Seniors (60+), Juniors (6-15) $7

Kids 6 & Under FREE

Family Pass (2 Adults, 3 Jrs) $35
